

ProMo Model Composer Editor

Purpose:

The model composer is a graphical tool for the definition of process models based on topologies.

Description:

The editor has currently three phases:

- Definition of the topology.
- Population of the topology with species.
- Equation topology – choose the appropriate association and instantiate the entities. (under development)

The editor allows for a hierarchical definition of the topology and handles multiple network types as well as named networks.

– end –